

Week beginning 22nd November

It has been lovely to see you all at Parents Evening; the children are progressing so well.

We are continuing to look at space, looking at the book: "Whatever Next!"

As always, we will continue to look at sounds, blending and segmenting green words. We are also starting to write simple CVC words, listening to each sound.

In literacy, we will be reading "Whatever Next". What would we take into space? We will be looking at lists and how to write a list. We will focus on what we would take into space!

In numeracy, we will be looking at 1 more and 1 less from a given number. We will use a range of different objects to help us and, of course, I will be challenging them by asking them questions to see if they can explain their reasoning!

Things to remember: We are beginning to think about Christmas (!) and learning songs for our play. As always, please bring in water bottles.

Butterfly Class Weekly Update

Well done Butterfly class. This week we have thought really carefully about 'One Kind Word.'

Next week:

In English we are beginning to read and write about Emma Jane's Aeroplane.

In Maths we are looking at tens and ones and then one more and one less than a given number.

In Science we are looking at the sense of touch.

In Geography we are visiting Africa.

In Art we are making African masks.

In RE we are thinking about which events in Jesus' life were ordinary and which events were extraordinary.

PE, forest school and music on Friday.

Have a lovely weekend.

Dragonfly Class Weekly Update

Next week:

In English we will be writing postcards using 'Meerkat Mail' as a focus. We will also be working on comprehensions linked to our topic.

Our focus text for whole class guided reading is 'Sully the Seahorse'-a text about building resilience.

In Maths we will be consolidating our understanding of subtracting numbers crossing 10.

In Science we are looking at what animals and humans need to survive.

In Geography we are going to be reviewing our learning so far and creating a class page of knowledge!

In Art we will be finishing our Maasai jewellery and looking at Maasai masks.

In RE we will be continuing to look at stories from the Old and New Testament: David and Goliath and The Lost Sheep.
